Health Equity Plan Presentation – See the attached presentation slides. Enrique inquired about grievances and appeals REALD/SOGI. He is curious as to who predominantly providing guidance and feedback via grievances and appeals. Action item for PacificSource to bring requested data to a future meeting. Leslie Marshall suggested engaging with the schools and school-based health centers to gather input regarding the HEP and their additional target population of those who have a disability and the LGBTQIA2S+. The community benefit initiative dollars could be used to support this initiative. Including innovate ways to create safe spaces with additional BH support in schools for those who identify as LGBTQIA2S+. Breanna also suggested supporting more empowerment for students who have an IEP to have a greater voice and influence over that IEP. Leslie mentioned have providers trained to better serve individuals with intellectual disabilities to expand access and have a better understanding of their needs.	Aleysa Garcia-Rivas	 ITC262_0321_Plain Language CLAS.pdf  2023 MP CAC HEP Presentation.pdf Information Sharing
Family Connect Presentation – See attached presentation slides. The program is up and running in Marion County but is understaffed to meet the needs. Polk County is on hold as they currently don't have staff for the program. Both counties are looking to hire nurses to work within the program. The program is insurance blind and is open to all new mothers in Marion County. Action Item for Kiara Lisa asked if she could provide this same presentation to committee focusing on infant safe sleeping practices.	Kiara Yoder	 2023.02 FC Presentation Marior Information Sharing
ABA Provider follow-up – The discussion begins at time marker 01:17 to listen to the full discussion. This will be a standing agenda item to keep the CAC appraised of any movement or updates. Zaira provided an update on the research and investigation she has done so far to understand the issues and to be solution oriented. PS will work the WHC to align efforts around workforce issues and other opportunities to enhance access to ABA services. Dustin has questions out to the BH side of the OHA to see if the changes in BH rates might impact ABA service payments. Dustin couldn't provide a response but will follow up once he has gotten responses.	Zaira Flores-Marin, Elaine Lozier, Dustin Zimmerman	Information sharing
CHA/CHP update - The discussion begins at time marker 01:20 to listen to the full update. Planning is 2023-2026 to start the CHA to completion of the CHIP the assessments will be released in June they will come into play in 2024 with the CHA happening in 2025 and then the CHIP living document in 2026.
